BEYOND SKIING...

Ice skating:

in the ice stadium in Pinzolo with an Olympic rink you can skate, play hokey, broombal and curling. In Madonna di Campiglia you can go outdoor skating on the small lake of the green valley, which freezes in winter and becomes an excellent skating rink.

Sled dog:

Glide through the snow in sleds pulled by beautiful Alaskan Aski dogs

Cross-country skiing:

Discover the two cross-country skiing trails in Campo Carlo Magno and Carisolo

Snowshoeing and snow hiking trails:

Madonna di Campiglio, so what are you waiting for? Set out to explore nature turned white by snow all around the towns of Val Rendena.

Ski touring between Brenta and Presanella:

Ski touring, the classic alternative alpine skiing, is very much at home in Pinzolo/Madonna di Campiglio and Val Rendena, making it the ideal location for renowned events, including the grand finale of the World Cup. There are many wonderful routes, the most famous ones leading to: Cima Roma, Cima Vagliana, at the mouth of the chamois through the solitary Val Gelada, the Presanella peak in Monte Ritort in Monte Serodoli and many others.

Ice climbing on waterfalls:

Val Rendena, Pinzolo and Madonna di Campiglio offer exciting settings for climbing on ice waterfalls, the winter alternative to rock climbing. Try the ascents on the Val Brenta, Valesinella, Nardis and Lares waterfalls.

Paragliding over Val Rendena:

Float gently towards the Val Rendena by paragliding. Doss del Sabbion, located 2100 metres above sea level, is one of the many natural springboards for enjoying the breathtaking and enchanting spectacle of the mountains.
